FOREWORD

These few years spent in Lewisburg High have been certain; the years ahead are not. Many of our friends will drift apart, and most will lose their now clear impressions of school life. The winning touchdown, a delightful dance, an awarded honor — all will become nebulous with the passing years.

When these memories have faded, the purpose of this volume will be achieved if you leaf through your Oneida and meet old friends in their favorite haunts, as you hum,

“... Old LHS we love you evermore.”

DEAR STUDENT BODY

"To be alive in such an age!" is the last line of "Today," a poem by Angela Morgan.

What a stimulating thought, especially for those of you who graduate in June! All about us the fast-moving world is characterized by change. The new is becoming outmoded before it can become old. Some would have you believe that the future holds no promise.

But take no stock in such beliefs. Look into the future with anticipation. There is a bright tomorrow. Be alert, trained in skills and knowledge, eager to try new theories, and refusing to admit defeat.

Our confidence in you, and best wishes go with you as you leave the Lewisburg Joint High School.

WILLIAM R. RUHL
Assistant Principal

DEAR CLASS OF 1962

Congratulations on having finished the course. You have done a good job and you have made many fine contributions to this school. I shall always remember you as the first class to carry through the project of a foreign student in our high school.

What lies ahead? You have no monopoly on that question because we all ask it on occasions. The future is not ours to command but it is shaped to a considerable degree by the lives we lead. There is no need to conquer the world, but please live in such a way that it will be a better place because of you.

Good luck!

ONEIDA

Each year the Oneida, our school yearbook, attempts to reproduce a picture of life at Lewisburg High School by giving complete coverage to all scholastic and extra-curricular activities in the school.

For the past several years, sophomores and juniors, as well as seniors, have been members of the staff. The purpose of this arrangement is to provide each year's staff with members who are experienced in raising funds and constructing the book itself.

The staff now works almost all year round taking and collecting pictures of events in our school, and arranging them in the yearbook in a manner that will most interest the students.

It is through the combined efforts of the Oneida typists that the book goes to press.

Collecting and arranging the ads is a challenging job.

DRAGON HI-LITES

The Dragon Hi-Lites, the official student newspaper, strives to keep the student body well informed on all the activities in and around the school. There are nine monthly issues of the paper during the school year, the last of which is entirely in the hands of the incoming editorial staff. The Hi-Lites staff is also responsible for a weekly column in the Union County Journal. Members of the staff are selected from both the junior and senior high schools on the basis of a sample article and approval by the editors.

Good luck to a girl who loves the roller coaster, (went on it 3 times)! I hope we'll always continue to be friends. Don't forget all the fun we've had. Love Eileen

Nine times each year the Dragon Hi-Lites Editors perform the grueling task of arranging copy at the print shop.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' LEAGUES

Earnest, President; E. Brouse, Treasurer; N. Brouse, Vice President; Benson, Secretary.

Hours later, these combined efforts produced a festive fair atmosphere, delightful confusion, and large profits.

The Boys' and Girls' Leagues are composed of all the students in the senior high school who wish to participate in various activities sponsored throughout the year. The object of the Leagues is to promote friendliness among the students of the school and to foster the ideas of cooperation, responsibility, and service.

This past year, the Girls' League supported a Korean orphan and entertained their mothers at the annual Mother-Daughter Reception; the Boys' League held the Father and Son Banquet. Together, the Leagues planned the annual Mistletoe Ball, held during Christmas vacation in the school gymnasium.

The School Fair, also sponsored by the Leagues with the aid of the faculty, was a great success. As usual, part of the money raised by this combined student effort went into improvements for the school.

Fun and festivity mark the 1961 Fair entertainment.

The informal air of Student Council meetings does not lessen their efficiency.

The Student Council consists of representatives from the entire school. Its main purpose is to keep order in the life of the students by acting as a governing body. The Council maintains a school store for student convenience, provides Christmas decorations for the school, conducts school elections, and sponsors an annual spring dance.

This year, for the first time, the Council is sponsoring a foreign student, Jutta Seitschek from Austria. This project is financed by the Council, along with the help of other organizations in the school.

The Lewisburg High School was granted a charter for the Alpha Chapter of the National Honor Society in 1951. The Junior Honor Society was formed in 1957. Members of both groups are chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. This year the senior group made a special project of compiling a scrapbook containing information on all previous members of the Honor Society in our school. The junior group attended a lecture and discussion on the Civil War at Susquehanna University.

Its membership is limited to those students in their second or third year of study who wish to speak more fluently and learn about the French culture. This year, the members corresponded with students living in France, viewed informative films, and attended the annual French banquet.

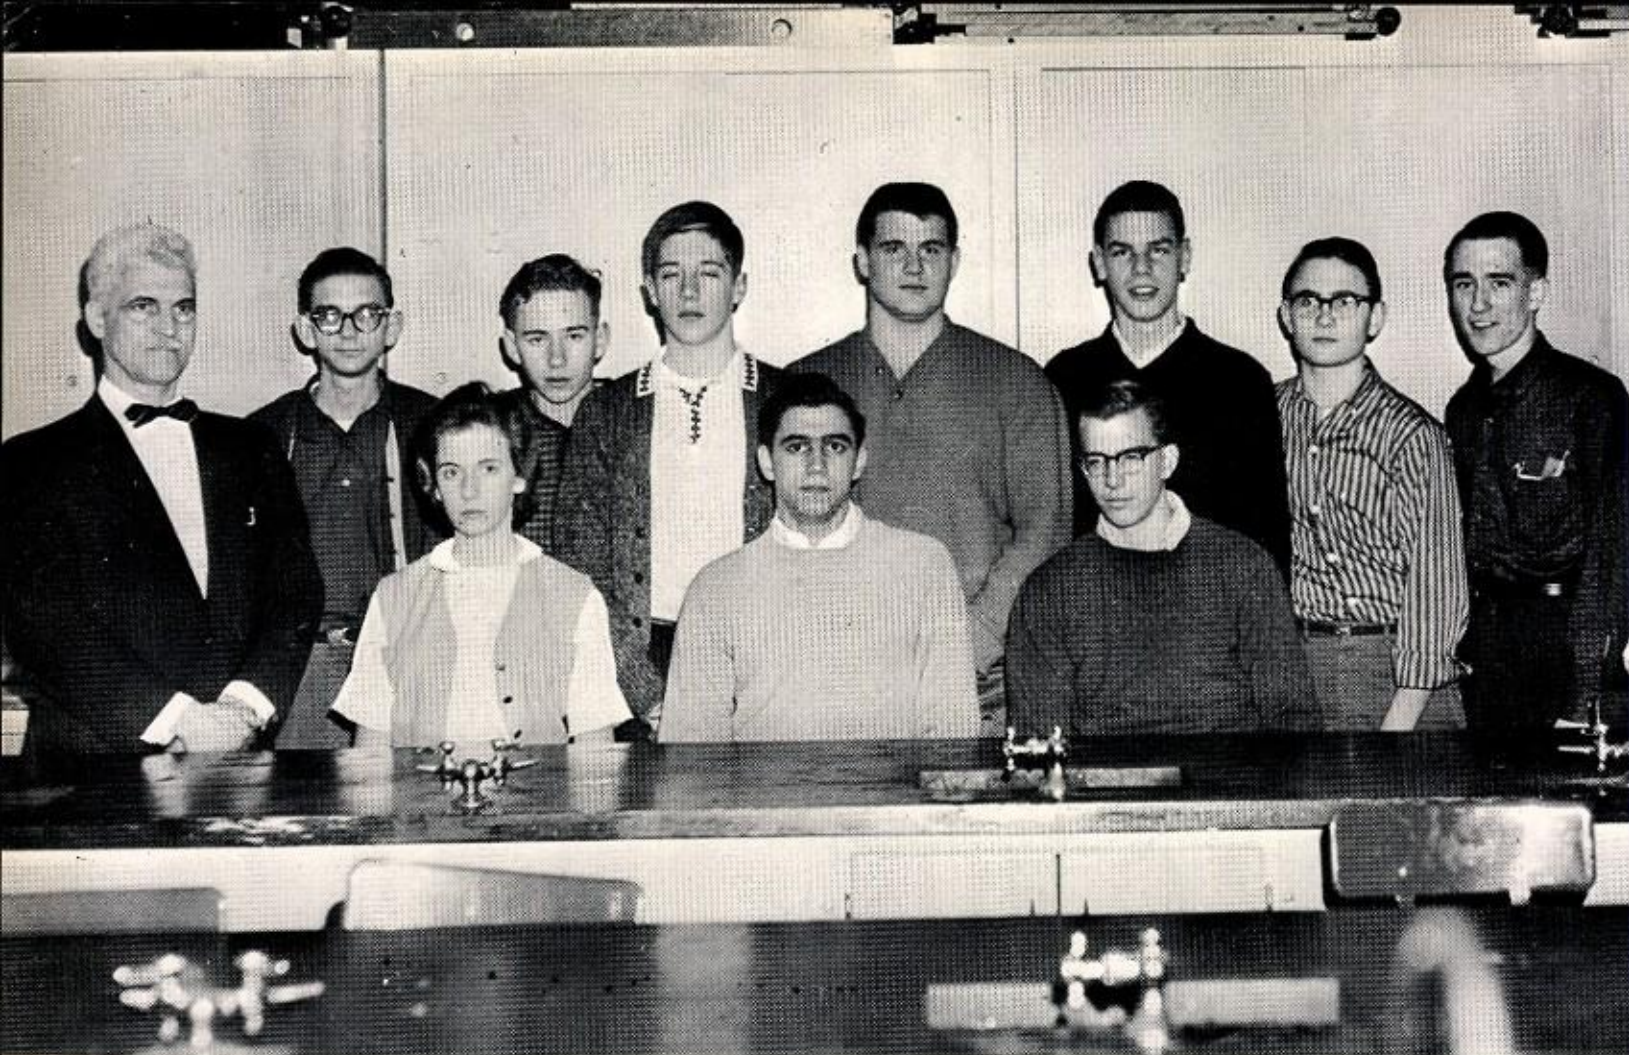

KEY CLUB

The Key Club, a select high school organization sponsored by the Kiwanis International, is composed of sophomore, junior, and senior boys. Each year new members are chosen from the sophomore class. Under their new advisor, Mr. Candrick, the boys distributed Christmas baskets to the needy, attended various church services in the community, and sponsored a dance. As does its parent organization, the Key Club tries to help the school and community in every way possible.

This year members enjoyed viewing films, performing experiments, and building pieces of laboratory equipment. The club encouraged individual projects and assumed leadership in conducting the local science fair held at our school in the spring.

NATURE CLUB

The Nature Club is a group composed of seventh and eighth grade students who are interested in wildlife and nature in general. Among the many projects undertaken by the club was making plaster casts of animal tracks found around their homes and in nearby woods. The club took several field trips and listened to a lecture by the Game Protector. Next year, the club hopes to expand to include students in all three grades of the junior high school.

BUSINESS EDUCATION CLUB

The Business Education Club has been organized to promote interest in those students who plan to go into commercial fields. The club, under the fine leadership of Joanne Beaver and the guidance of Miss Ritter and Mr. Kessler, has enjoyed a highly profitable year. Programs included demonstrations of various new business machines and interesting talks given by business employers. The club sponsored a dance early in the fall and planned the annual Christmas party and spring picnic as the social highlights of the year.

JUNIOR HIGH ART CLUB

This year the membership of the Art Club was open only to the freshman class. The main purpose of the Art Club is to promote art activities throughout the student body. The members spent their time mostly on individual projects emphasizing creativity and originality. Some of the projects were clay modeling, painting, and sketching. This year the club purchased paintings for the school and offered the students an opportunity to pursue their special interests in art.

The Consul Major for the year was Michael Burgee. This year's highlight was the Roman Banquet (Romana Cena) at which the members dressed in the manner of the ancient Romans.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club is made up of all girls who serve as Mrs. Blum's library assistants. The club is open to girls in the ninth through twelfth grades. The girls work at the desk, check books, file cards, and make displays for the bulletin boards. Among the year's activities were a Christmas party and the annual Teenage Library Assistants Convention.

This group practiced delivering extemporaneous speeches and held several debates. Both groups viewed instructional films and held several parties. Their general aim is to teach better public speaking methods and the proper procedure for conducting and participating at a meeting.

This year the Parliamentary Procedure Team of the club again won the state championship. As for individuals, Galen Fetzer was the runner-up Regional Star Farmer, and Richard Metzger won the Keystone Farmer Degree. Donald Fogel was elected to the State Presidency of the FFA. In June the group took a trip to Canada as a prize for their parliamentary procedure work.

The group rehearses twice a week during the activity period. The Junior Band performed along with the Senior Band in their spring concert.

BAND

The Senior Band's marching season began in late August when the entire marching band attended a three-day band camp for intensive marching drills in preparation for pre-game and half-time shows at football games.

This year saw the innovation of the Wind Ensemble, which was composed of the more advanced instrumentalists of the regular concert band. Jointly, the groups presented a winter concert in February. The full concert band presented a spring concert, and the Wind Ensemble gave a performance in April which featured various smaller ensemble groups.

FOOTBALL

The 1961 Green Dragon football squad finished the season with a record of four wins and four losses. The team began the season by regaining the Little Brown Jug from Mifflinburg and ended it with an upset victory over Selinsgrove.

Several players turned in fine performances. Eric Brouse and Bob Elliott received honorable mention for the All-League team. In addition, underclassmen David Swartzlander, Walt Berger, Bob Weller, and Larry Noll turned in creditable performances throughout the season.

The football team looks toward 1962 with hopes of an even better year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Although spirit was high throughout the season, the basketball team failed to break into the winning column many times during the 1962 season. The players fought some close games, including two with Little Brown Jug rival, Mifflinburg. Injuries and inexperience hampered the Dragons.

Howard Sechman, Carl Millward, Norman Huggins, Mark Heintzelman, James VanBuskirk, Rick Reish, and William Earnest finished their basketball days at Lewisburg High School this year.

BASEBALL

The Lewisburg baseball team came through with a record of eight and six in 1961. By defeating the Mifflinburg Wildcats, they retained the Little Brown Jug. Four members of the class of '61, Boney, Degling, Gemberling, and Sagun, finished their high school careers with the Green Dragon team. Since Bill Earnest sparked the team with his fine job of pitching, there are high hopes for the 1962 season.

The Girls' Athletic League is an organization which tries to create interest and support student participation in sports. Sophomore, junior, and senior girls who have earned one hundred points in intramural and varsity sports are eligible for membership in the club. A girl who has earned two hundred and fifty points is eligible to receive the G.A.L. pin. Several large playdays to which girls from surrounding schools were invited were among the activities sponsored by this organization.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

For the second consecutive year the Dragonettes reigned as champions of the Susquehanna Valley Girls' Basketball League. This year the honor was shared with Middleburg as both teams closed their season with a 6 win—2 loss record. The season terminated the basketball careers of letter-winners Sue Peters, Pat Reitz, Cindy Heim, and Vickie Shannon.

Playing her first year of American style basketball was Jutta Seitschek whose Austrian determination sparked the J.V. squad to an equally impressive 6-2 record.

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club consists of all those persons who have earned a varsity letter. The purpose of the club is to encourage participation and cooperation in the athletic program. This year, the members purchased a camera to take moving pictures of all the football games. As in previous years, members sold programs at home games, and sponsored a concession stand at home basketball games. Programs were printed in cooperation with the business education department for the home basketball games and wrestling matches.

OUR FIRST FOREIGN STUDENT

Jutta Seitschek

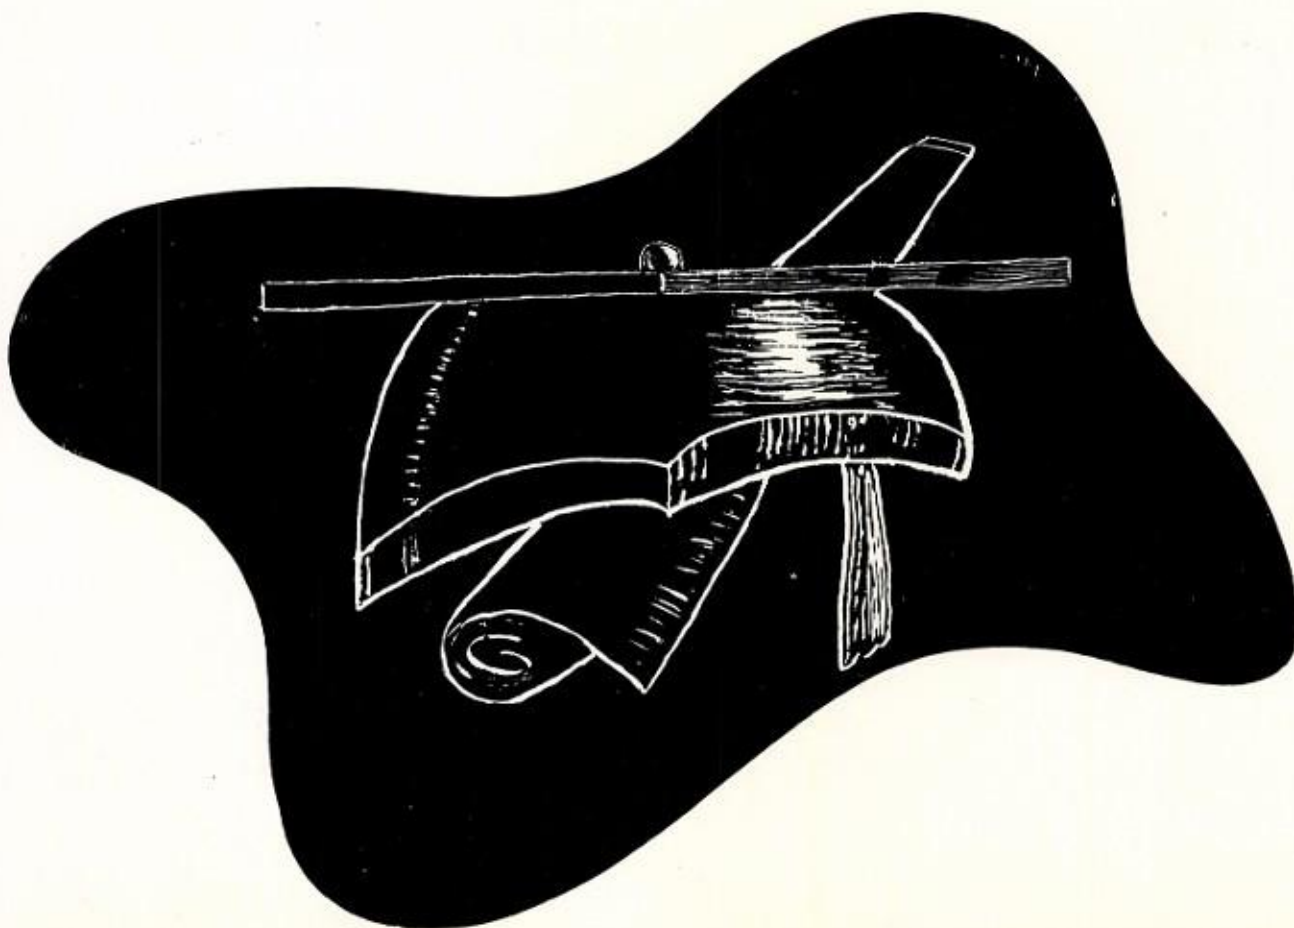

This is 1962. A troubled world lies around us—a world enmeshed in the toils of prejudice and misunderstanding among nations. Now the time has come for mankind to cast off the shackles of hatred and strive toward universal peace and harmony.

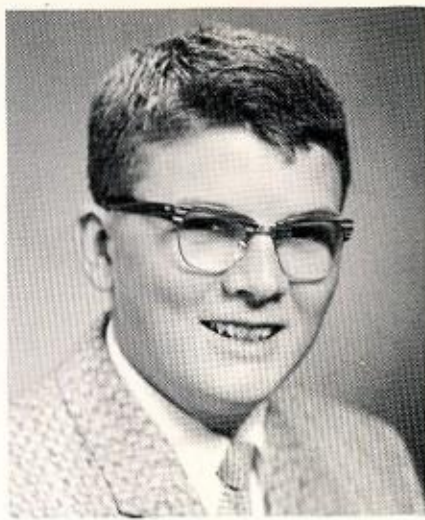

We of Lewisburg Joint High School have taken a step in the right direction. We have waged our own crusade for peace and friendship, and the fruit of our labors is Jutta Seitschek, from Vienna, Austria.

During the past year we have watched our interest in and enthusiasm for Jutta reciprocated. In the classroom we have witnessed her genuine quest for knowledge about our American society; by her eager participation in various extra-curricular activities, we have become aware of her absorbing interest in us as Americans and in our way of life.

To Jutta we say "thank you" for helping us to tear down self-erected barriers of prejudice or indifference and for guiding us closer to an understanding of our fellow men across the sea.

In my twelve years of school I have had many exciting and inspiring moments, but the campaign for senior class president is something I'll never forget. After a grueling two weeks of preparation for all candidates, the big moment came when the results were announced. To explain how I felt when my election as senior class president was announced would be practically impossible. I will only say that I felt a deep gratitude to those who entrusted me with the privilege of being their leader in 1962.

Not until you become a senior do you believe that this school, good old L.H.S., is your Alma Mater. Your school feels more and more like a second home, and her administration and teachers become as near and dear to you as your parents. Your teacher is no longer an adversary, but rather a friend and adviser who is willing to do all he can to help you make a place for yourself in today's fast-moving world.

Hurry! It is almost eight twenty-five. School starts at eight twenty-five. I am late. A locked door! What shall I do? Mr. Janitor, please, let me in. "Sophomore, you are late. You will pay to enter each class."

My classmates laugh when I relate to them this "night-before-school-opened" dream. All my teachers smile amusedly at my dream also. I laugh too, for actually, I became lost and was late to a class on my first day at Lewisburg Joint High.

As I complete my high school days at Lewisburg High School, I bid farewell to my principal, teachers, and classmates. It is here in these pleasant surroundings that I have spent my last year learning many of life's basic values, the worth of sportsmanship, and the joy of companionship. As the years pass by, I will look back upon my high school years as a time when the care-free days of youth turned into an earnest search for knowledge. To my classmates I wish success and happiness in whatever field of endeavor they choose. To my teachers I express heartfelt gratitude for their tireless instruction, constant patience, and helpful guidance.

Sometimes I find it hard to believe that I have finally reached my last year of high school and will soon seek my fortune in the world of today. How long I have waited for this moment; how happy I thought I would be upon leaving my Alma Mater. Just think, no more lugging books back and forth to school or spending sleepless nights writing themes or reading books that should have been started weeks before. But often I find myself thinking of the fun I have had in my years of high school, and I am saddened by the thought that some of the happiest days of my life are about to come to an end.

Our teaching staff of Lewisburg Joint High School takes great pride in helping seniors individually. They devote time and effort in preparing us for further education and understanding of the problems we will meet in the future. The school staff is made up of perfection-minded helpers who are constantly working to make a better senior. Therefore, we owe our thanks to the teachers and staff of Lewisburg Joint High School for the time and patience they gave in preparing us for life, our greatest educator.

I have graduated.

Good-bye to music-making through the fog of the early morning. Farewell to determined football players with uniforms of green and white and to corridors saturated with the smell of sulfur. Adios to a distinguished faculty who has so capably prepared us for the future. Au revoir to a way of life.

Hello to ivy-covered buildings and the inevitable "blue books." Bonjour to a career, and to a cold, calculating, competitive world. Buenos dias to increasing responsibilities and to innumerable successes and failures. Greeting, to a new way of life.

School means different things to different people. For me it has always been a place for learning; for finding that which is mine and that which is not.

School has many doors, behind which lie that elusive intangible—knowledge. I am grateful that what doors I have opened, I have been allowed to open here at Lewisburg High.

We are finally entering the most important phase of our high school careers—our senior year. As graduation swiftly approaches, we often think of those first few weeks in L.J.H.S. when we were immature seventh graders. Opening our wall lockers and passing through the halls in the correct lane of traffic were both major operations. What problems this everyday routine posed for us! Now we are sophisticated seniors. However, this status will change again, as we start all over as very green college freshmen, or step into the world of adults, in which we must learn to live as mature members of society.

To me the senior year is a nine-month span of time during which I have a contrast of feelings. On one hand, I have a feeling of accomplishment, for I am finally on the last leg of a twelve-year journey of preparation. Now I can go out into the world with confidence. On the other hand, I have a feeling of regret, for along with all the years of work, there were just as many years of fun that I would like to live all over again.

The youth of today are bombarded by the pessimistic forebodings of their elders. The young men and women of 1962 are warned of Communism and annihilation, radiation and mutation. They are presented with a thousand problems which older and wiser people could not solve. Yet with the courage and tenacity that Americans have always shown when confronted with that which seems impossible, the youth will survive and conquer their problems. They shall meet the challenges and return to create a better existence for themselves and their children.

Surely every student has asked, "Why am I in school?" To me, learning the tools for a future career is secondary. I think that the most important reason for attending school is to acquire individuality and strength of character. I refer to that individuality which gives a person the feeling that he can evaluate a problem and arrive at an intelligent solution. To back up his decision, one needs strength of character. Indeed, if all a student acquires are these two things, his years are well spent, for he has the foundation for a good life.
